Countries and capitals

---

Countries and Capitals is a website that allows one to get to know all the countries in the world on one's computer or mobile device without leaving home. The site provides a wide range of data, such as "HDI", "Happiness Index", "GDP" and many others.

Registered users can share their impressions and photos of the places they have visited.

Technologies: PHP, JavaScript (Ajax)

Vytauto Didžiojo universiteto Ugnės Karvelis gymnasium Žinių mainai

---

A platform where high school students can help each other by asking and answering questions. Although the initial motivation for this website was to assist student learning amid the global pandemic, it also proved to be useful to improve communicability, learning skills and was also approved by my school as a valid way to earn volunteering credit

Technologies: PHP, JavaScript

Real estate agency database

A platform to allow for a more efficient management of the company's customers. It is a database maintenance program that helps storing and managing the data of potential real estate clients and tenant agreements. Core feature include:

- Checking contract every midnight to select the ones that are most likely to expire.
- Enabling estate brokers to use Android and iOS applications linked to the database to fill out a form at the end of the conversation to be able to add a potential client to the database.

Technologies: Flutter, PHP, JavaScript
